

CALL FOR APPLICANTS

The Summer Genetics Institute (SGI), sponsored by the National Institute of Nursing Research (NINR), is a one month, intensive program of classroom and laboratory instruction in genetics that provides a foundation for biobehavioral research and clinical practice.

The SGI is provided by NINR at no cost to program attendees. Attendees are responsible for housing, food, and transportation expenses incurred during program participation. The application period for NINR's 2017 SGI is now open and will close March 1, 2017. For further information, contact the SGI.

Eligibility Requirements

Nursing graduate students, faculty, and clinicians who are citizens or permanent U.S. residents.
